How does a Bill become a Law in Indiana?

The Bill is introduced in either Chamber of the Indiana General Assembly (House of Representatives or Senate)

Committee
- Debate
- Amend
- Vote
- Table
- Defeat
- Pass

Floor Action by Chamber
- Most bills pass with a simple majority vote

The Bill passes to the other Chamber

Committee
- Debate
- Amend
- Vote
- Table
- Defeat
- Pass

Floor Action by Chamber

Pass without amendment

Pass with amendment

Governor of Indiana

Conference Committee
- Members of the House and Senate resolve differences between versions of the Bill

Bill becomes Law
- If the Governor signs it
- If left unsigned for 10 days while the G.A. is in session
- If the Governor vetoes it but the veto is overridden by a 2/3 vote in the House and the Senate

Bill fails to become Law
- If the Governor vetoes it and the G.A. does not override the veto
- If left unsigned for 10 days and the G.A. adjourns (pocket veto)

ACLU
AMERICAN CIVIL LIBERTIES UNION of INDIANA